EVEN BREAK FOR TAIL ENDERS

Orators Should Have Taken
Two Games From the Ponies

Gibbs and Kane Were Effective But Former Did Not Get Support He Merited —Timely Swatting.

Bridgeport should have taken both contests from Springfield yesterday at Newfield, but the first was given away through the misplays of the Orators, two errors being recorded in the sixth season, which allowed two runs, enough to win the game. The finish was at 2-1. The second was much better and was won by the Orators on clean timely hitting 3-2.

Murray Parker twirled both contests for his club and twirled well, holding the Orators to four hits in the first game, but weakened in the second, enough for the Subway artists to get in a few safe clouts when they were needed. Gibbs with any kind of decent support would have pulled out a victory in the first but the fruits were denied him. "Caddy" Kane after that slaughter on Wednesday by Waterbury returned to form and did finely in the second game. He had the Ponies breaking their backs trying to connect.

The lone Bridgeport run in the opener was a presentation. Miller was named in the second inning, went to third on Sweeney's hit and scored on a passed ball. The Ponies corralled their winners in the sixth. After Rising had gone out, Bill Luby singled into center. Joe Connor hit a violent stab at Gibbs, which glanced off his glove and went to Miller. Miller nicked the ball up all right, but threw wild to Bunyan, Luby taking third and Connor second. Then came Whalen with a hit to center scoring Luby, while Joe Connor took third. It was right here that head work on the part of Kocher was lacking. When he saw Whalen trying to plier second he threw the ball wild to Sweeney. Connor coming home with what proved to be the winning run. The other outs after this play were easy. In the eighth Ladd hit to left center. Miller sacrificed him to second. Bunyan lined a scorcher at Flynn which that player nabbed and touched Ladd for a double play.

The start of the second game was somewhat different from the first, as the Orators exhibited something like ginger. Steinhäuser led off with a hit. Bannan sacrificed him to second. A passed ball put Steinhäuser on third. Parker did not wish to take any chances with Hill, and passed him. Kid Ladd picked out an out curve to his liking and the next thing the fans saw was that Waite and Connor were hoofing it to the bull in center field. When the ball came back on about five relays, Ladd was on third, and Steinhäuser and Hill had taken a double field tied up in the fourth, but should have gone one better. Flynn started off with a single, and Connor followed with a single to right on which Barbour's two bagger to right on which he attempted to score, though the bone headed coaching of Zellar at third, Steinhäuser threw from third to Hill to nab Barbour on second. Hill threw to Kocher. Flynn being nailed at the plate. Then came Chet Waite with a two sacker into left scoring Barbour. Rising died at first on a ground hit to Hill. Barbour scored when Luby uncovered a drive to right. Luby was forced at second when Havel hit to Hill.

Dumb base running cost a run for the Orators in the sixth. Ladd was safe on Havel's error. He went all around to third when Parker pitched into the grand stand. He should have scored from that station when Ladd hit to Flynn, but remained stationary. The ball bounded off Flynn's shins giving Ladd ample time to tally. Miller was safe on the throw. Then came Bunyan with a pop fly to Barbour. Sweeney followed with a crack at Flynn, on which he doubled Miller up at second. The last and winning tally happened along in the eighth. Bannan led off with a terrific liner to the horse race, finishing up on third. Then came Hill with a single through the infield, scoring Bannan. Hill went to second on Ladd's sacrifice and to third on Parker's wild pitch. When Miller was out to Rising Hill attempted to score but was nailed at the plate on a beaut of a throw. The scores:

WHEATON GOLF COURSE; SOME CONTESTANTS FOR NATIONAL AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

Between Sept. 6 and 11 the course of the Wheaton Golf Club at Wheaton, will be the scene of the National Amateur championship contests. It will be the third time that the championship games have been played on the Wheaton course, the first being in 1897. On Sept. 6 the entire field will take part in a qualifying round of eighteen holes, the lowest sixty-four scores to qualify. The next day the sixty-four qualified entrants will play another round of eighteen holes, the thirty-two players having the best scores qualifying for the subsequent match play rounds. The meeting will call out the greatest array of experts ever assembled on a western course. The knowing ones of the game declare that Travis, Travers and Herreshoff are to be reckoned with. Others regarded as strong championship probabilities are W. T. West, John Anderson, John M. Ward, T. M. Clafin, H. R. Johnston and E. W. Whittemore. The United States amateur championship has been played since 1895, the results having been as follows:

1895—Newport, C. E. MacDonald beat C. E. Sands, 12 and 11.

1896—Shinnecock Hills, H. J. Whigham beat J. G. Day, 8 and 7.

1897—Wheaton, H. J. Whigham beat W. R. Betts, 8 and 6.

1898—Morris County, F. S. Douglas beat W. B. Smith, 5 and 3.

1899—Onwentsla, H. M. Harriman beat F. S. Douglas, 3 and 2.

1900—Garden City, W. J. Travis beat F. S. Douglas, 2 up.

1901—Atlantic City, W. J. Travis beat W. E. Egan, 5 and 4.

1902—Glen View, Louis N. James beat E. M. Byers, and to the Amateur.

1903—Nassau, W. J. Travis beat E. M. Byers, 5 and 4.

1904—Baltusrol, H. C. Egan beat Fred Harreshoff, 8 and 6.

1905—Wheaton, H. C. Egan beat D. E. Sawyer, 6 and 5.

1906—E. M. Byers beat G. S. Lyon, 2 up.

1907—Euclid, J. D. Travers beat Archibald Graham, 6 and 5.

1908—Garden City, Jerome D. Travers beat Max Behr, 7 and 7.

Travers made low score in the qualifying round, 79-74-153, but was defeated in the semi-final by J. D. Travers by 2 up, 36 holes.

fused to leave the field at Waterbury, and the officers to whom the ump appealed to enforce his order refused to do so. In a heavy hitting game on the part of New Britain the Meadow Larks were trimmed. Hartford took an easy win over New Haven. The results:

Springfield 2, Bridgeport 1. (first game); Bridgeport 3, Springfield 2. (second game).

At Hartford—Hartford 4, New Haven 1.

New Britain—New Britain 4, Northampton 1.

At Waterbury—Holyoke 3, Waterbury 0. (Forfeited.)

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

Don't for the life of you neglect to take in the two games scheduled for Monday afternoon, Labor Day, at Newfield. It's then that the Brassies and Crane No. 2 get together and the world's record and the great English runner who figured in the 400 meters fiasco at the London Olympics last year.

The games begin with a "modified" Marathon—runners start from Stamford to Roton Point by way of Norwalk, the last mile to be run on the track at the Point. The runners start at 1 p. m. at the Town Hall, Stamford, and follow the Post Road to Norwalk and go thence through Norwalk to the Oval. Among the entries for this event are Harry Jensen of the Pastime A. C., who finished second in the last Boston Marathon and has been about the most successful amateur Marathoner of the past year.

Down on Crane Field, Crane No. 1 with Ben Stewart at the helm, and U. M. C.'s will mix it up. On the face of things, Crane No. 1 ought to win the contest, but with Jack Coffey doing stunts in the box there'll be no telling as to who will bring home the bacon.

Holmes & Edwards and American & British will meet up at St. Joseph's Field. The successors of the Yosts have been going good, having two crack pitchers in Dart and Keating. With either of these they ought to make trouble for the Gunmakers.

MANAGER DUNBAR MAKES TART REPLY

Sporting Editor of the Farmer:

I am sorry that you will give me space for this article, I will close my side of this controversy relative to the South Ends and Newfields:

—When I write articles I can prove them.

2d—All articles with my signature are written by me and are not another's idea or dream.

3d—The South Ends have been charged for a series of games to decide which team is the best. If Manager O'Brien refuses to play, he will have to admit the Newfields are a little too strong for the South Ends.

C. H. DUNBAR, Manager Newfields.

ATHLETES RACING INTO SHAPE

For Coming State Y. M. C. A. Championship Meet at Seaside Park

Porter and Trube Are Coaching the Locals and Good Results Are Anticipated.

Seaside Park was the scene of great athletic activity again Thursday night. The Y. M. C. A. men are working under the direction of Herbert L. Trube, indoor mile record holder, and H. F. Porter, who won the high jump championship at London last summer. It is only a short time until the state championship meet is to be held at Seaside Park on Sept. 18.

The candidates for the 100 and 220 yard dashes have shown great improvement of late. Swanson and Conway seem to have proven themselves the best of the ten or twelve fellows trying out for the distance. In the time trial on Wednesday night, Swanson shaded 15.45 seconds for the 180 yards. Conway, Anderson, McGinnis and Broderick were not far behind and finished in the order named. New Haven is reported to have some very good sprinters so that these men will have to run very fast to do their share in attempting to keep that cup which is on exhibition in Fairchild's window, Main street, Bridgeport. Connette, Anderson and Bennett show better at the furlong distance—the 200 yard dash—than the other three. The 440 yard dash will be without a doubt, one of the prettiest races on the afternoon of the 18th. The men seem to be evenly matched and if an outsider takes the Bridgeport men, he will be a middle distance runner of the highest calibre.

Captain Joe Kelly shines in the half-mile. He has been running the fastest time trial and should make a very strong bid for the first place. For the last few days, however, he has been pursued very close by Russell, a little fellow with a bright smile and a pretty stride. Russell is without a doubt, a coming champion. Considering his age and size he is in a class by himself. He is a "find" and may prove of great value in the championship mile run.

Model Bill McClellan is the only runner up to date who has shown any chances of scoring in the mile and five mile runs. He shows up best in the longer runs but with a little more experience such as they will get in the handicap meet, next Monday, may show the way to the other three. The 440 yard dash will be without a doubt, one of the prettiest races on the afternoon of the 18th. The men seem to be evenly matched and if an outsider takes the Bridgeport men, he will be a middle distance runner of the highest calibre.

Harry Porter is making some "sure enough" athletes out of the candidates for the field events. Downing, Nicholson and Barnaby are clearing the bar consistently. They are all showing high jump. Any one of these have a good chance of "putting it over" on any outsider but what they can do in the Connecticut high jump championship, Hiron has put in an appearance in practice lately and is showing exceptional form.

In the shot put and broad jump, Bridgeport has three men on whom to rely. McGinnis, who has proven himself to be a good all round man, Connette and Hiron, have been doing feet in the shot put and over eighteen feet in the broad jump.

The Bridgeport team is by no means a galaxy of stars. In fact the stars are conspicuous by their presence. All the team to date has shown a fighting spirit and proved itself to be a unit of good-fellowship; so that, considering its all round ability, the teams that come from outside, thinking they are going to take with them, by Fairchild trophy will have to be mighty hard to do so.

BALL GAMES TOMORROW ON LOCAL DIAMONDS

St. Josephs Open New Field in Barum
Avenue With Orioles as Opponents

Tomorrow at their new grounds, the St. Josephs have for their opponents the strong Orioles team. The friendly rivalry which exists between these two clubs is strong, each claiming superiority over the other. The East Side is well worked up over the series, Sunday's game being the first of three. The group are in excellent shape, have been graded and leveled off by Burns & Co., surveyed by Ford & Co., and have been fenced in. The St. Josephs will be the third base line of Bridgeport that they intend to do everything in their power to cater to the comforts of their friends and patrons. Hundreds of dollars have been expended to place the field in shape so that now they compare favorably with any field in the State. Bleachers are placed on the third base line to add to the comfort of their patrons with a seating capacity of 500. The field lined out and roped off makes a pretty sight. If you have not made any arrangements for Sunday afternoon go up to the field on Barum avenue, three minutes from the end of the car line, and help the boys out. Show that you appreciate their efforts to forward amateur sports conducted in a clean and honorable manner. Game called at 3:30.

YOSTS PLAY TWO GAMES MONDAY

YOSTS-SPORTS 1511the a-h : Ap

The only semi-professional contest in town on Monday morning is scheduled for Yost Field at 10:30 o'clock when the Union Typewriter Co. team and the Milford team. This will be the second time this season that these two clubs have faced each other, the first in Milford before the start of the industrial league season, the Yosts going down to defeat 4 to 2. The members of the Milford team are all well known to the fans of this city, having at various times played with local clubs. They have a crack pitcher in Ernie Wade, who formerly twirled for Bridgeport, and their catcher will be Ed. Keating, of the No. 2 Crane team. On first there will be "Dasher" Kelley, whose name is a by-word in the town of every fan. Who does not know the name of every fan and Frank Lolley at third. Then around short stop, Baker of the West Ends will cavort, while the outfield will be looked after by that trio of ground covers and sluggers, Cairns, Rose and Patterson. White and Wilson will be the Yost battery.

In the afternoon both clubs will meet in Milford with the same teams except in pitchers. Milford will use Ed. Dargan, while the Yosts will trot out Amos Johnson. This will pit two old team mates against each other, both Dargan and Johnson pitching for the old St. Peter's which won the City League championship a few years back. The St. Peter's finally branched into the West Ends.
